Guest Speaker Eugene Schwartz

A graduate of Columbia University, Eugene Schwartz has worked with all stages of life, from the young child to the elderly and the dying. He began his teaching career by adapting the Waldorf schools' curriculum to educate a group of challenged adolescents, after which he became a class teacher at Green Meadow Waldorf School. After many years of service to Green Meadow, Eugene now works worldwide as an educational consultant and lecturer. He is a Fellow of the Research Institute for Waldorf Education

Childcare will be provided for KG and First Grade students. When student performances begin, Kg and 1st grade students will join their parents.

Pizza will be served for all students.

School News:

- Crazy Hat Day! At Mountain Oak School, Tuesday, November 24 (day before Thanksgiving vacation) Students who wish to participate must pay a $1.00 "fine" for "breaking the dress code." Wear your craziest hat to school! Contest for the craziest hat!
- PROGRESS REPORTS, will be available to pick up in the school office next Tuesday 11/24/09 (day before Thanksgiving Break) and the first week of December. Reports not picked up by then will be mailed during the 2nd week of December.
- POSITION AVAILABLE AT MT OAK SCHOOL: Assistant Hand-Work Teacher, Fridays only from 10:30AM to 3:00PM, $9.25/Hr, Exp. w/ hand-sewing & crocheting helpful. Apply in the office.
- Tax Credit: Pick up Tax Credit brochures in the office. The family who brings in the most donations will be awarded their own parking spot in the front of the school! Please be aware that last year's winner, the "Wyatt Family", is still entitled to their spot- so please do not park there!! Send out brochures so you can win the spot in February :)
- HOLIDAY GIFTS FOR TEACHERS: If you would like to give a teacher a book for a holiday present, come look at the Steiner Books Education Catalog in the office. Many teachers have marked their wish lists in it. You can order yourself, or we will put in a school order in early December. Talk to Martha Jensen with questions.
